College: The Four Year Window...

Mark Meyer

in the lives of 18-23 year olds, where they are figuring out who and what they want to become and do in their adult years. Students' choices and values in college greatly impact who they become for many years to come.

We want to make the most of this time in students' lives to impact them with the Gospel and surround them with Christian friends who daily challenge them to live out their faith.

Mark works with men and outreach among international students. He meets weekly with men to disciple them either to grow in their faith and service, or learn about what it means to be a Christian for the first time. He also pairs up American students and families from local congregations with International students to be conversation partners, and teaches Sunday morning English class and Bible discussion before church.

The International Student Ministry offers a great opportunity to introduce Jesus to the students on the campus and their family members. God is working through many activities provided for the International students. More than 20 students and family members have been baptized into the Christian faith.

University Lutheran Chapel...

a great place to learn of and live in the knowledge of our Risen Lord and Savior!

Most of Mark's work at the Lutheran Chapel is with Men's Ministry, small groups, international students, ELL (English language class), and sports leagues. If you would like to be challenged in your faith, get involved at the Chapel, or play basketball just contact Mark.

It is through your generosity along with the financial support of the 245 congregations of the District that enables God's Kingdom to grow at the UNL Lutheran Chapel.
